

Checking progress on mega project

The Shire Valley Transformation Programme (SVTP), in collaboration with African Parks, on Friday hosted Minister of Tourism, Wildlife and Culture Michael Usi and Deputy Minister of Transport Nancy Chaola Mdooko at SVTP construction site and Majete Wildlife Reserve.

KEEPING POACHERS AT BAY—Rangers and their dogs

SVTP is working with African Parks on conservation of natural resources in Majete Wildlife Reserve as one of the protected areas within the project catchment area. African Parks Majete works is implementing livelihood restoration and conservation programmes with communities surrounding the reserve with support from the project. Pictures by ALICE KAUNDA, SVTP

DANGER UNDER CONTROL—Usi inspects some confiscated firearms

ABSORBED—The ministers during a parade inspection at Majete

ADEPT—SVTP Irrigation Engineer Martin Chizalema makes a presentation during the tour

MASSIVE—The tiger fish barrier under construction on the canal

DONE—A canal which is part of the SVTP